WET MAJORITY IN OHIO 1,137 VOTES

Complete official figures from every county received by the secretary of state Monday show the wets won the recent state-wide prohibition election in Ohio by a majority of 1,137 votes. The total vote for the prohibition amendment was 522,590, and the total vote against it was 523,727. In 1915, the last time the issue was voted on, the wets won by a majority of approximately 55,000 votes.

The referendum which would have given Ohio women the right to vote for president was defeated by a majority of 144,806, the secretary of state announced. Suffrage was last defeated in 1914 by a majority of 182,905. The total vote for suffrage was 420,166, and the total vote against was 564,972.

MEDINA WAR BOY

PRaises Y. M. C. A.

A Medina county mother recently received a letter from her son, now in the war zone overseas. After describing the trip and his impressions of the great war, he says:

"Then came that wonderful Y. M. C. A. organization. It established headquarters in Paris. Then they started for the front and for the camps, with their little old canteen

OHIO CORN TOUR OF EDUCATIONAL VALUE

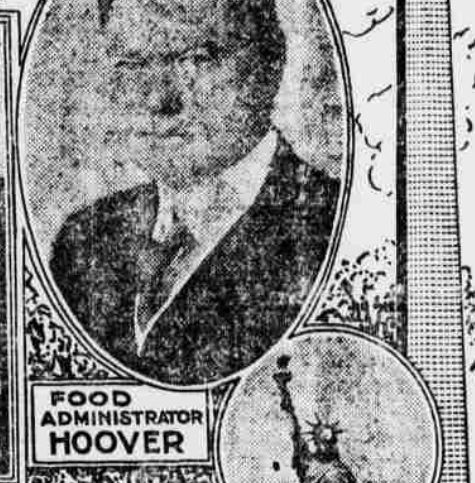

PRESIDENT WILSON

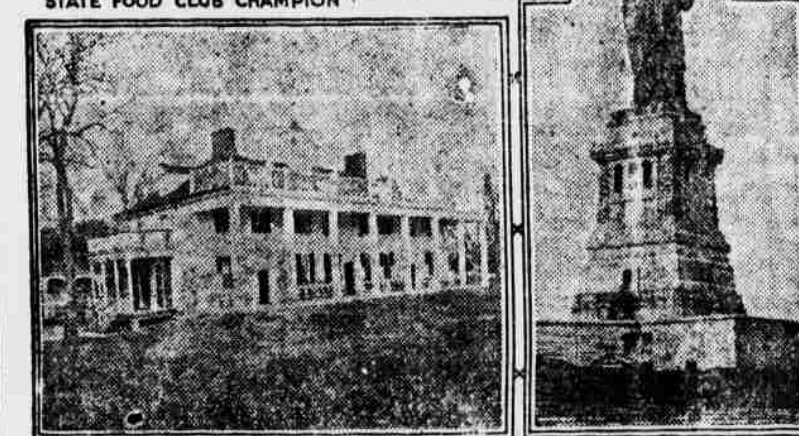

CAPITOL BUILDING

CATHERINE FITZGERALD
STATE FOOD CLUB CHAMPION

STATUE OF LIBERTY

MT. VERNON

WITH 1,000 prize winners, relatives and friends going on the sixth annual Ohio Corn Tour to Washington, and the East, the trip this year promises to be the biggest in history. Several are going from this county. A dozen men of note, including President Wilson, N. D. Baker, secretary of war; David F. Houston, secretary of agriculture; Herbert Hoover, national food administrator; Governor Cox, Senators Harding and Pomerene and Mayor Mitchell of New York City, will receive and address the boys and girls who have won the trip.

The tour offers an unequalled opportunity to see Washington and New York in war time with the advantages of party rates on every item of cost. Guide service will be furnished by the United States Department of Agriculture and every minute will be planned so that the trip will be of the most educational value. Friends and relatives and others may accompany the winners and enjoy all the courtesies extended. A descriptive folder may be secured from W. H. Palmer, Agricultural College Extension Service, Columbus, Ohio.
